Sandee's heart is to see people reset and restored back to the Father's heart and his purposes for their life. John 10:10

- Sandee knows what it is like to be reset. She has faced huge challenges of addiction, abuse, abandonment, trauma, shame, rejection and lack of identity and destiny. She shares many stories of redemption, reconciliation, and restoration especially for those who have lost hope and purpose.
- On a daily basis Sandee provides wholeness prayer and prophetic intercession from her home, to people from all walks of life. Check out her website testimonials on healing and deliverance. <https://houseofre.faith/testimonies/>
- Sandee also serves at Elijah House Training schools, online webinars and other ministries via zoom calls.
- God has gifted her with an authority, faith and deep love for the broken.
- Married Murray in 1996 and together they have two teenage daughters.
